

Hirachand R. Pagaria .. Applicant
Versus
State of Maharashtra .. Respondent

Mr.Subhash Jha i/b. Law Global for applicant
Mr.S.S.Pednekar, A.P.P. for State.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.
DATE : 30th November 2006.

P.C.

Mr. Jha appearing for applicant states that despite protection granted by this Court to the applicant, he could not attend the Burra Bazar Police Station, Kolkata within the time stipulated in the order dated 7th November 2006. He states that the reasons for not being able to proceed to Kolkata are set out in the application and they are genuine.

2. The order passed by this Court was self-operative and Mr.Jha states that the applicant has not been arrested till today. In such circumstances, a final chance to attend the concerned police station or to take appropriate steps as are permissible in law is granted. This order is passed in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case. Normally, a transit bail should not be extended as a matter of course but considering the averments in paras 4 and 5 of this application, the applicant shall not be arrested for a period of two weeks in connection with F.I.R.No.191 of 2006 registered with Burra Bazar Police Station. Needless to state that on expiry of the aforesaid period this order would come to an end automatically without reference to this Court.
